VOL. XIX.

FLAGSTAFF, NOVEMBER 8, 1902.

No. 45

WILSON ELECTED.

Carries Territory By Three Hundred Majority—Legislature Will Be Democratic—Returns From Territory.

The election in the Territory resulted in the election of Wilson, the democratic candidate, by from three to four hundred majority.

Morrison carried the counties of Apache, Navajo, Coconino, Maricopa, Pima, Pinal, Mohave and Yavapai.

Wilson received majorities in the counties of Maricopa, Cochise, Yuma, Graham, Gila and Santa Cruz.

The vote for Morrison was a surprise to the democrats who expected that Wilson would carry the territory by not less than 1000 majority.

Graham, Cochise and Maricopa gave the vote that elected Wilson. There was an unusually large democratic vote in these counties.

The Territorial legislature will be democratic, although there is an increased number of republicans in both the council and house.

YAVAPAI COUNTY.

Returns have been received from over half of the precincts of the county and from all of the larger and most important ones. From these a fairly accurate approximate can be made of the result, which will be as follows:

R. E. Morrison will have a majority of from 250 to 400 in the county for sheriff.

Joe Roberts will have a majority of from 600 to 800 in this county.

E. S. Clark is elected district attorney by a majority of 300 to 500.

The vote for councilman is close with equal chances for both candidates.

For the assembly there is also a close vote between F. A. Tritle, Jr., and Barrow, the latter being in the lead with returns to date.

Dan Campbell is only a few votes behind Sinclair for supervisor with chances of the precincts to hear from yet overcoming this and putting him ahead.

The rest of the democratic candidates have safe majorities which cannot possibly be overcome, Storm being in the lead, Jolly second, Farley third, and C. P. Hicks fourth on the list in the total vote.

MOHAVE COUNTY.

The entire democratic ticket, with the exception of one supervisor, was elected in Mohave county, although the county gave a small majority for Morrison. The following are the officers elected: Whiteside, council; St. Charles, representative; Lovin, sheriff; Feeny, recorder; Dickson, district attorney; Logan, probate judge; Dennis, treasurer; Kolar and Grant, supervisors.

APACHE COUNTY.

The republican ticket was elected in Apache county as follows: Herber Jarvis, council; Nasanceno Gonzales, representative; Sylvester Peralta, sheriff; Leandro Ortega, treasurer; Jacob R. Armijo, recorder; John T. Hogue, probate judge; Reamer Ling, district attorney; A. L. Truax, Isaac Isaacson, supervisors.

NAVAJO COUNTY.

Navajo county gave Morrison a small majority and elected the following officials: J. X. Woods, council; W. A. Parr, assembly; T. F. Moran, district attorney; F. J. Watron, probate judge; C. G. Houck, sheriff; F. M. Zuck, treasurer; A. McAllister, recorder; R. C. Cresswell and F. F. Flickinger, supervisors. Parr and McAllister being the only democrats elected.

COCONINO COUNTY ELECTION

Is Warmly Contested by Both Sides—Returns Incomplete—Democrats in the Majority.

REPUBLICANS MAKE A GAIN OF THREE OFFICIALS

Results of Election in Various Precincts Except Fredonia and Ryan—Morrison Carries the County by a Handsome Majority—Democrats Elect Both Supervisors—Cornish for the Long Term.

The election in Coconino county resulted in a number of surprises, and made an equitable division of the county offices between the two parties.

The republicans elected were John H. Page, assembly; Edward M. Doe, district attorney; A. E. Douglas, probate judge; H. C. Hibben, recorder; J. A. Lamport, surveyor. The successful democrats H. F. Ashurst, council; James A. Johnson, sheriff; Thomas Devine, treasurer; A. T. Cornish and G. W. Martin, supervisors. Harrison Conrard, school superintendent, had no opponent.

The election was warmly contested on both sides from the opening to the close of the polls.

As usual, Flagstaff leads in the number of votes cast, being within a couple of 600, against 508 two years ago.

Williams cast 348, while two years ago, the total vote of that precinct was 392.

Morrison's majority will reach 150. The total vote for delegate was 1000.

The election for precinct officers in Flagstaff resulted in the following vote: For justice of the peace, L. W. Quinlan, 289; W. H. Pierce, 231; constable, Sidney Brown, 31; W. C. Bayless, 370.

The precincts of Fredonia and Ryan have not been heard from. The returns are expected here on Tuesday next, but the returns from these precincts will not effect the result.

The New Mexico Way.

Delegate Rodey has been re-elected to congress by a majority of over 7,000. The entire legislative ticket is republican. The legislature will be:

Council, republicans, 11, possibly 12; democrats, 1, perhaps none. House, republicans, 21; democrats, 3. Republican county tickets elected in every county but six.

GENERAL ELECTION.

Republicans Generally Successful—New York Elects Odell—Ohio Was Not Doubtful—Gains in the Northwest.

Elections were held Tuesday in forty-two states, and the results are highly satisfactory to the republicans.

State officers were chosen in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, South Carolina, Alabama, Texas, Michigan, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Nevada and California. New Hampshire elects only a governor; Tennessee a governor and railroad commissioner and Pennsylvania a governor and two other state officials.

Minor state officers or justices of the supreme court were voted for in Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Ohio, Iowa, Florida, North Carolina, Delaware, Utah, Washington and Montana.

Congressmen only were elected in Arizona, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky and New Jersey; and delegates in Arizona, Hawaii, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Porto Rico.

The term of thirty United States senators expire March 4, 1903. Five have already been filled by the election of James B. McCreary (Dem.), Kentucky; Joseph B. Foraker (Rep.), Ohio; Arthur P. Gorman (Dem.), Maryland; W. P. Dillingham (Rep.), Vermont; and Samuel B. McEnery (Dem.), Mississippi. In the following states legislatures which select a senator were chosen: New Hampshire, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Kansas, Idaho, Utah, Colorado, Nevada, Washington and California. The legislatures of Oregon, Arkansas, and Georgia, which also elect a senator, have already been chosen.

Odell, upon whom a tremendous fight was made in New York, has been elected. Ohio, where Tom Johnson made such spectacular race, has spoken again, 100,000 majority for republicanism. In a general way the old republican states have maintained their position—the southern and rock-ribbed democrats, of course, voting as usual.

From the latest returns it is clear that the republicans will have control again of the lower house of congress.

Only the official count will determine the election in Oklahoma. Republicans claim the election of McGuire by 280, while the democrats claim the election for Cross by 1000. Delegate Flynn says Cross is elected.

In Idaho the republican ticket was elected and the legislature will be strongly republican.

In Utah, for congress, Joseph Howell, republican, will have a plurality of 5,427. The legislature will stand as follows: Senate—Republicans, 13; democrats, 5. House—Republicans, 39; democrats, 6.

Colorado republicans elect the state ticket by a plurality of 7000, and the legislature is claimed by both parties.

Mickey is elected governor of Nebraska, and the republicans also get five of the six congressmen from that state.

The election of Pardee in California is conceded, as well as six out of the eight congressmen.
